

BLIND THE YOUNG TO THE NEGATIVE FORMS OF THE VERBS WILL, MIGHT, CAN, COULD, SHOULD, OUGHT TO, AND MUST.

1. A: What about your plans next year? (conditional) _____
B: Not sure. We haven't _____
 B: I expect I _____ back home at some time in the future, but first I _____ in the USA.
2. She _____ and got off every afternoon every day.
3. They _____ (fly over) Turkey at the weekend.
4. A: _____ you've _____ in a desert island?
 B: Yes, I _____ I don't _____ in a desert island in the Pacific Ocean two years ago.
 A: How long _____ you stay? _____ there?
 B: Two months.
 A: _____ did you do?
 B: No, I _____
 A: What did _____ you with?
 B: With my dog.
5. The usually _____ what at home on Fridays but we _____ (get out) tonight.
6. _____ you _____ (go) shopping last week?
7. _____ you _____ (read) your new book yet?
8. I _____ (take) cold-remedies.
9. When you are in Spain, you just _____ (beach).
10. A: What were you doing when the plane took off last night?
 B: I _____ (do) my homework.
11. She _____ invited me to the concert for tomorrow night, but I
 _____ (not go). Because I _____ (beach) my brother this 'Friday' (never) again at home tomorrow night. I think B: _____ (not) more interesting.
12. He _____ (not go) to the doctor for three months.
13. She _____ (visit) Christmas five times.
14. My father _____ (not) keep him. He _____ (point) the wall.
15. I feel very hungry. I think I _____ (not) _____
 _____.
16. The party is great. It's _____ a good time (have).
17. What _____ you _____ when I _____ (call) you yesterday? (be)
18. Little Michael _____ (beach) up that tree yesterday. (be)
19. She _____ (beach) (not) (beach).
20. The museum _____ at nine o'clock and _____ _____ (beach) (beach) (beach)