

Section - Grammar Test

1. Complete the sentences using the right part of the verb.

1. Why do you look at me so strange? (I said nothing wrong!)
2. He is looking again for eggs.
3. You are thinking the ship will be approached?
4. I'll go to London because I don't have enough money.
5. You can be found in London? Yes, I do find that in 1988.

2. Put the articles where necessary.

1. I have ... advertisement.
2. She has ... long well-manicured hair.
3. Would you like to see ... husband's photo?
4. She ... stayed any longer's as if I had no choice.
5. Going ... here is a more pleasant holiday for boys than playing ... cards.

3. Choose the right pronoun.

1. ... has lived in this house for many years.
a) something
b) his own
c) himself
2. He didn't care ... money and he had a small house.
a) few
b) many
c) much
3. He is not suitable for any ... jobs.
a) bit
b) many
c) few
4. I've got two neighbours, but I like ... of them.
a) none
b) either
c) neither
5. You can have ... of the biscuits. They're delicious.
a) either
b) any
c) neither
6. ... I didn't use to be quite as child.
a) ... still.
b) so
c) either
d) neither

4. Put in the preposition where necessary.

1. What work did you get ... (rightly yesterday)?