

So.

→ www.sothefishsaid.com]

Beth Fish asked to see handwriting samples a while ago. Remember how I said I have been crazed? Thus —

She gets her sample TWO WEEKS after she asks for it.

I'm not really sure what the point of this - other than trying to forge checks.
[But trust me, there is nothing to steal.]

Oh. And here is what it looks like when I write in cursive.

Typeography was my fave thing in college.

↑ SPELLING
WAS NOT.

* At the office, usually I am the one that signs all the sympathy cards from the group.

When I send letters, I usually draw TISSUES? lines, stars, flowers and BURSTS around people's names.

Of course. They are lucky if I spell everything correctly.

→ With Deepest Sympathy —
Gimme