

PARAGRAPH

Before doing this activity – remind the children when you put information together, we have to take care that we include all the facts, but we don't have to repeat words or sentences again or that we repeat words or phrases including ourselves.

Remember to look to the start of the text you will be reading a paragraph. The children to take carefully. After reading the paragraph you will read the sentences. The child has to take carefully and decide which one explains the main idea of the paragraph (the best).

There is a word in English called Southern Cross. It is a constellation of stars. The children have to read the text and find the word.

- a) Southern Cross is a constellation of stars.
- b) The constellation is a star.

Paragraph is a group of sentences that are related to each other. It is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

- a) It is a group of sentences that are related to each other.
- b) It is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

- a) The word.
- b) The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

There are many words that are related to each other. The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

- a) The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.
- b) The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

There are many words that are related to each other. The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

- a) The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.
- b) The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

There are many words that are related to each other. The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

- a) The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.
- b) The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

There are many words that are related to each other. The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.

- a) The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.
- b) The word 'Paragraph' is a group of sentences that are related to each other.