

Adjective or Adverb?

- 1) Chinese is a ..... (difficult) language.
- 2) Do you speak French? A little bit, but I don't speak it very ..... (good).
- 3) Don't drive so ..... (dangerous)! You must be ..... (crazy)!
- 4) Don't drive so ..... (fast)!
- 5) Don't work too ..... (hard). You are still ..... (ill).
- 6) He ..... (quick) took his lunch package and went to work ..... (happy).
- 7) He came ..... (early) and left ..... (late).
- 8) He spoke ..... (quiet), so I could ..... (hard) hear him.
- 9) His suitcase is ..... (heavy).
- 10) His wife always drove ..... (careful).
- 11) I'm ..... (sad), because I can't find my ..... (favourite) book.
- 12) I am ..... (absolute, happy) about this present.
- 13) I got a ..... (real, good) mark. I am ..... (glad) about it.
- 14) I read the letter ..... (careful).
- 15) I got up ..... (late), so I ..... (quick) ran to the bus stop.
- 16) It is ..... (late). I will go to bed now. .... (good) night, mum. Sleep
..... (good)!
- 17) Martin couldn't come to the party. I felt ..... (terrible, sorry) for him.
- 18) My aunt can't play the piano ..... (good).
- 19) My aunt looks ..... (happy).
- 20) My grandfather is a ..... (good) cook. He cooks very ..... (good).
- 21) This sounds ..... (terrible).
- 22) My leg hurts. I can ..... (hard) walk.
- 23) My stomach hurts. I feel ..... (terrible).
- 24) My uncle is French, but he speaks German very ..... (good).