

Name _____ Class _____

What is a call number and where is it located?

What is the call number for your book? Why does it have that call number - what is the category?

What is the title of the book? What three places can you find this information?

Who is the author(s)? Where can you find this information?

Who is the publishing company? Where can you find publishing company information?

What is the copyright date? Where can you find this information?

What is a table of contents? What does it include? Use the table of contents to find an example of a mammal.

What is an index? How is an index organized? Use your index to find what animal classification is a crocodile.

What is a glossary? Why is it useful? Use your glossary to define the word vertebrate.