

SIMPLE PAST TENSE

STUDENTS REWRITE THE CORRECT FORM OF THE VERB IN BRACKETS.

ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS

1. What was yesterday?
2. Where did Sharon and Dorothy go?
3. What did they discuss the Continental Restaurant?
4. Where did they sit at the restaurant?
5. What did they have before dinner?
6. What did Sharon order for dinner?
7. What did Dorothy order for dinner?
8. How was the food?
9. Did they have a nice evening?
10. How many glasses of wine did they drink?

AT THE CONTINENTAL RESTAURANT

Yesterday (be) Sharon and Dorothy Sharon's twenty-third wedding anniversary. They (go) to the Continental Restaurant for dinner. The restaurant is a very special place for Sharon and Dorothy because they (be) there on their first date twenty-four years ago.

Sharon and Dorothy (sit) at a quiet, romantic table in the corner. They (have) two glasses of wine, and then they (order) dinner.

First Dorothy (order) a bowl of vegetable soup and Sharon (order) a glass of tomato juice.

For the main course Dorothy (request) baked chicken with rice and Sharon (order) broiled fish with potatoes.

For dessert, Dorothy (demand) a piece of apple pie and Sharon (order) a bowl of strawberries.

Sharon and Dorothy (enjoy) their dinner very much. The soup (be) delicious and the tomato juice (be) fresh. The chicken (be) wonderful and the fish was very fresh. The fish (be) fantastic, and the potatoes (be) excellent. The apple pie (be) magnificent and the strawberries (be) out of this world.

Sharon and Dorothy (have) a wonderful evening at the Continental Restaurant. It (be) a very special anniversary.