

UNIT First Grade Mathematics	STUDENT OBJECTIVE	EXAMPLE/ ACTIVITIES	RESOURCES / MATERIALS	ASSESSMENT	WORK – PLACE READINESS STANDARD
Number Sense	Students will be able to identify, write, and order numbers 0-100.	Students will make counters for tens and ones using craft sticks and beans. Glue ten beans on each.	Craft sticks Beans Glue Number cards	Teacher Observation Worksheets Quizzes Unit Tests	4.1.2.A.1
	Students will be able to count by rote to 1,000.	Have students bring in tabs from cans to make counting easier.	Tabs from cans	Teacher Observation Worksheets Quizzes Unit Tests	4.1.2.A.1
	Students will be able to identify the ones column and tens column.	Working in pairs, one student hops on one foot as the partner places a counter in a cup for each hop. When finished hopping exchange counters (ones) for rods (tens) and counting together.	Cups Counters (ones) Rods (tens)	Teacher Observation Worksheets Quizzes Unit Tests	4.1.2.A.2
Numerical Operations	Students will be able to add two-digit numbers beginning with the ones column first.	Students estimate sums and differences both before doing either paper-and-pencil computation or calculator computation.	Paper and pencil Calculator	Teacher Observation Worksheets Quizzes Unit Tests	4.1.2.B.5
	Students will be able to subtract two-digit numbers beginning with the ones column.	Using the daily calendar, provide students with problem solving situations.	Calendar	Teacher Observation Worksheets Quizzes Unit Tests	4.1.2.B.5
Number Sense	Students will be able to identify the numbers before, after, and between a set of numbers.	Place number cards 1-50 in a sack. Have students pick a number and give clues as to what it is, such as “This number come before ___ but after ___.”	Sack Number cards 1-50	Teacher Observation Worksheets Quizzes Unit Tests	4.1.2.A.3.5
	Students will be able to identify ordinal numbers to hundredth.	Celebrate the 100 th day of school by using a variety of procedures to identify ordinal numbers.	Calendar	Teacher Observation Worksheets Quizzes Unit Tests	4.1.2.A.1
