

Career Plan Building Activity

The Career Plan Building Activity: Competencies and Career Interests Profiler activities are very helpful tool to discover one's personality, interest of job and strengths. Based on the results of Career Interests Profiler, I came to know about my personality, skills, and strengths. The result of Competencies shows me the following:

- More Initiative: Takes responsibility for actions, projects, and people; generate activities and introduce changes when it requires.
  - Applying Expertise: Uses technology to achieve work objectives and goals; develop job knowledge and expertise through continual professional development.
  - Following Instructions: Follows procedures, rules, and policies; attains the punctuality demonstrates commitment to the organizations.
  - Goal Focus: Accept and tackle challenging goals with enthusiasm; work hard, and put more efforts, and time.
  - Entrepreneurial Thinking: Control costs and think in the term of profit, loss, and added value.
  - Strategizing: Develop strategies and work strategically to accomplish the task.
- For group to work together successfully, members must demonstrates the sense of cohesion.

They need to share their opinions, ideas, and effectively listen to others. Members agree on what he or she needs to do. They need to understand and take their responsibilities to accomplish the task.

Based on the results of my competencies, experiencing initiative will help me to take responsibility for actions, makes quick, and clear decision, and follow the policies and procedures. By applying my expertise will help me to achieve the specific goals with enthusiasm. By understanding the strategizing skill, I came to know that developing and using strategies in the group will improve my problem-solving skill and thus help me to find the best alternative for accomplish the task within the group.