| Commas, Ellipses, Dash (Choosing Part 1 / L.8.2a) |
|---|
| A comma is used to separate and enclose phrases and clauses. (,) An ellipsis indicates an omission from a direct quotation.() A dash emphasizes certain material within a sentence. (-) |
| Directions: For each sentence below, place a comma, ellipses of dash to correctly complete each sentence. |
| Example A: John said, "forgive my guilt you will be thanked." Answer: John said, "forgive my guilt you will be thanked." |
| 1. I would suggest or should I say argue that this must change. |
| 2. In conclusion I am very proud of you. |
| 3. Dan explained, "wash the dishes someday you will learn." |
| 4. At the end we all agreed on which road to take. |
| 5. Three leaders even new members agreed. |
| 6. Yes you can attend my birthday party. |
| 7. Rachel said, "I saw a comet rise it will arrive." ELA-Literacy.L8.2a |

Date: _____

Name: _____