

Analogy: EXTRA CREDIT

- This extra credit to be added to the analogy essay is due this Thursday.
- As it's extra credit, it's optional: you don't "have" to complete it.
- However, if you do wish to submit this assignment, then here are the specifications:
  - typical headers, spacing, fonts
  - length = 1 typed page (similar to a journal), certainly no less than 3/4 page
  - read one of the articles on the analogy page
    - those under the Brownmiller section labeled "So What?!" are good
    - those "others" that are controversial (LeBron, bin Laden), too
  - if it's related to Brownmiller, then give the gist (summarize) & relate it to the "so what" factor re: her article
    - "oh, so that's the big deal; now I get it"
  - if it's one of the controversial ones, summarize & then discuss how dangerous analogies can be
- no research
- think of this as a follow-up, an epilogue to our conversations on analogies in general & Brownmiller in particular
