Brief Introduction of 2005 China Flower Expo

Initiated by China Flower Association in 1987, the Flower Expo has been held for 5 times and gradually developed into a national fair of the largest scale, the highest level and the greatest influence. It is renowned as the Olympics in the flower circle of China. Aiming to "Prosper the city with flowers, and flourish business with the expo", focusing on Participation and Entertainment, and combining flowers and gardening exhibitions, trade talks, forums, and cultural activities, the 6th China Flower Expo is professional, entertaining, scientific, international, artistic, commercial, etc.. It is expected to improve people's living environment, to enhance exchanges and cooperation, and to promote the development of the flower industry. It will also play an important role in promoting the development of the gardening industry and be very influential in China and even in the whole world.

This expo will invite enterprises in the field of flower and gardening to realize great achievements in gardening exhibitions and trades. Government officials, famous experts on flowers and plants, and celebrities in all walks of life will be invited to write a splendid chapter of "China International Forum on Flower Industry 2005". Entertaining activities like the Evening
