

Grammar Work: Comma 1

Directions: Add a comma(,) where needed in each sentence.

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. When you practice an instrument regularly you see improvement more quickly.
2. Today's menu will take us to the park sea or museum.
3. While I was at the beach I saw three seagulls and two surfers.
4. I bought cheese and yogurt at the store and I even remembered to buy bread.
5. I ran two miles yesterday but I still needed to run three more miles to meet my goal.

Grammar Work: Comma 2

Directions: Add a comma(,) where needed in each sentence.

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. I asked to work with a partner although some people did the project alone.
2. The dogs either wanted to play fetch or they wanted to be walked outside.
3. You should get a cat instead of a dog since you hate going for walks and playing.
4. The concert was amazing because we had front row tickets and backstage passes.
5. Drivers of cars trucks and motorcycles share the road together.

Grammar Work: Comma 3

Directions: Add a comma(,) where needed in each sentence.

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Sarah loves to fill her summers with many activities including swimming fishing hiking and traveling.
2. You'll love the scenery whether you decide to travel to New Hampshire or another state in New England.
3. Accuse I was so tired I slept in and almost missed my bus this morning.
4. I listened to my new CD for hours because I loved every song by the band.
5. I added essential oils to my homemade soap because of their great scent.