

TRUE OR FALSE?-solution

- Sheep can fly - True
- There are poisonous snakes in England-False
- Cheltenham...(or town of your choice) is next to the sea-False
- Dogs have four legs-True
- The Queen of England is called Elizabeth- True
- There are 13 full moons in the year- True
- Rabbits eat meat-False
- Fish live in water- True
- Spaghetti grows on trees-False
- There are twelve days in a fortnight-False
- An English cream tea is: A pot of tea served with a scone with jam and cream-
- Christmas is in Decembe- True
- The King of Scotland lives in Edinburgh-False
- The Beatles were American-False
- Michael Jackson married Elvis Presley's daughter-True
- London is west of Cheltenham...(town of your choice)-False
- JK Rowling is a woman-True
- Beatrix Potter (Creator of Peter Rabbit) was Harry Potter's mum-False
- Fall is the American word for autumn-True
- The 2016 Olympics will be held in Germany-False
- There 26 letters in the English alphabet-True
- Dinosaurs are extinct-True
- A "Big Mac" is a large raincoat-False
- Mothers Day in England is in March-True
- Leonardo Da Vinci lives in Hollywood-False
- Canada is on the Equator-False
- A dozen means 12-True
- You can buy cigarettes in England at the age of 16-False
- William Shakespeare is a famous singer-False
- Marmalade is made from oranges- True
- There are wild pigs in England-True
- Children start Junior High(secondary) school in England at age 11-True