1. The New Year

by J.K. Rowling

Once, before anyone had ever chosen a specific calendar, everyone was free to decide on their own when to begin or end their day. In contrast with everyone else, the wizard Harry Potter had decided to begin his day when the sun rose and end it when it set. One day he was out for a walk in the park and met the dog he had bought and taken to the park. He was very happy to see the dog and he was very happy to see the dog. The dog had decided to begin his day when the sun rose and end it when it set. He was very happy to see the dog and he was very happy to see the dog.
