

Name _____ Period _____
Date _____

Homework Notebook
Periods 1,2,3, & 4
Mr. Austria, room 202

Compound Subject and Compound Predicate Worksheet

Directions: Read each pair of sentences. Then combine the sentences to make one sentence that has a compound subject or a compound predicate. Use the conjunction in parentheses.

1. The seven warriors fought. The general fought. (and)

2. Dogs protect their puppies. Dogs clean their puppies. (and)

3. City people throw away more trash. City people waste food. (and)

4. Some customers can be difficult. Some employees can be difficult. (or)

5. Fester is an interesting character. Gomez is an interesting character. (and)

6. Good students plan ahead. Good students study hard. (and)

7. Mammals need oxygen. Reptiles need oxygen. (and)

8. Flies are a type of insect. Flies can be called bugs. (or)

9. Video games can be a distraction. The internet can be a distraction. (or)

10. The right food keeps you healthy. The right food gives you energy. (and)
