

Name _____

Period _____

Bill Nye: Volcanoes

1. Volcanoes are formed when hot, molten rock from deep within the earth finds its way to the _____.
2. Volcanoes can erupt _____ and form new _____.
3. There are different types of volcanoes but they all do the _____.
4. Volcanoes usually occur where _____ plates run into each other.
5. Hawaiian Islands were formed when pressure in the _____ built up and BOOM an island was formed!
6. When gases get hot enough, they _____ and explode.
7. You can see the circular cone of a volcano. Down in the crater is a lava _____.
8. Plants grow in the volcano _____ because that's where water _____ when it rains.
9. A shield volcano forms when hot lava _____ down the sides quickly.
10. A cinder cone volcano erupts _____.
11. _____ is a shield volcano with _____.
12. There are some volcanoes that may never erupt again. They're _____.
13. _____ volcanoes are almost shaking and rumbling, and shooting off steam.