

Chunk of the week - ook

We are learning to use chunks of letters to decode

1) Colour in the -ook words in the drawing.

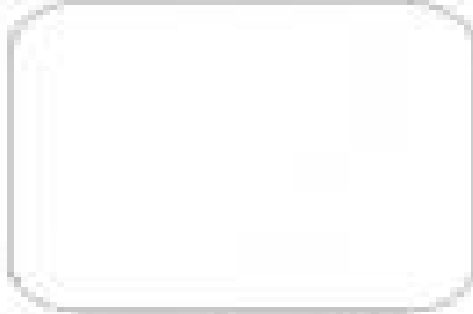

There was a young girl who would look

With a book into her reading book

She thought chunking was cool

So her reading was good

And her reading got shorter in that book

2) Draw four more words you can make by adding a new letter or letters to the front of -ook and draw them with a friend!

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

___ook

3) Write a sentence using -ook words and draw a picture of it.

