

The Magic School Bus Likes the Wind
by Anne Gersen, Illustrated by Carolyn Bracken

How to use: Read and enjoy the book together. Follow the word cards, and in completing the activity sheets.

Wind Makes Things Move

The wind makes many things move. In the boxes below read the word and draw a picture of the thing moving in the wind.

Directions:
Turn to the end of the book, looking over the last few pages. Then use the words that you see in the book. Write the words in the boxes and draw a picture of the thing moving in the wind.

Box for drawing: Ice

Box for drawing: Windmill

Box for drawing: Sailboat

Look around your home or yard for things that move in the wind. Look at the book again to see things that move in the wind. Fill in these boxes with things you choose.

Box for drawing: _____

Box for drawing: _____

Box for drawing: _____