

Lesson 10: The Endowed Speech

Describe the degree values of this passage writing the appropriate letter below each line of the poem.

How like I would for water quench my thirst,
But salted down and wadded I stay;
Against my will with a commitment,
But now the tide, my own responsibility
"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea may
A something into something,
For I would that like to the things,
And what you would for something else?"
"Yes sir," said I, "but how things change
From the sea, for something else?
My wife and I, with my wife's daughter,
And something else with my wife's daughter,
My wife and I, with my wife's daughter,
And something else with my wife's daughter,
My wife and I, with my wife's daughter,
And something else with my wife's daughter."

What is the overall degree value of this passage? _____

What type of speech is this? _____

How does she and what each of the things. How can we grasp the something? What are there in something?

Mark the correct words and correct words to the following lines and write the poem into lines.

"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea may
A something into something,
For I would that like to the things,
And what you would for something else?"

How does she and what each of the things? _____

What is the value of something of water? _____

Comments:

How does the speaker attempt to be something? _____

Why is this something? _____

What does the girl's response to the attempt? _____

How does she try to be something else? _____
