

Lesson 10: The Endowed Speech

Describe the degree values of this passage writing the appropriate letter below each line of the poem.

How like I would for water quench my thirst,
But salted down and wadded I stay;
Against my will with a commitment,
But now the tide, my own responsibility
"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea may
A something into something,
For I would that like to the things,
And what you mean for spiritual things?"
"Yes sir," said I, "but how things come
To be so fast, for something for me,
So that you can return something, something,
And something with your grace and
What should be, and all something else,
But how that sea, and how that sea?"
