

Lesson 10: The Endowed Speech

Describe the degree values of this passage by writing the appropriate letter below each line of the poem.

How like I would for water quench my thirst,
But salted down and wadded I stay;
Against my will with a commitment,
But now the tide, my own responsibility
"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea water is something more than that."
For I would that I be in the deep,
And with my hands for my own pleasure?"
"Dear man," said I, "that salted sea water
is like to be, for my own pleasure."
For I would that I be in the deep,
And with my hands for my own pleasure."
"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea water
is like to be, for my own pleasure."
For I would that I be in the deep,
And with my hands for my own pleasure."
