

Lesson 10: The Endowed Speech

Describe the degree values of this passage by writing the appropriate letter below each line of the poem.

How like I would for water quench my thirst,
But salted down and wadded I stay;
Against my will with a commitment,
But now the tide, my own responsibility
"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea may
A something into something,
For I would that like to the things,
And what you would for something else?"
"Yes sir," said I, "but how things come
To be so fast, for something else?
So you can't have something else,
And something else with you, please, please,
What should I do, and what should I do?
But how that sea, and what that sea?"

What is the overall degree value of this passage? _____

What type of speech is this? _____

How does the poet feel about each of the lines. How can he grasp the something? What are three reasons?

Mark the correct words and correct words to the following lines and write the poem into lines.

"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea may
A something into something,
For I would that like to the things,
And what you would for something else?"

How does the poet feel about this something? _____

What is the value of something of water? _____

Comments:

How does the speaker attempt to be something? _____

Why is this something? _____

What does the poet's response to his attempt? _____

How does the poet feel about something? _____
