

Lesson 10: The Endowed Speech

Describe the degree values of this passage by writing the appropriate letter below each line of the poem.

How like I would for water quench my thirst,
But salted down and wadded I stay;
Against my will with a commitment,
But now the tide, my own responsibility
"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea may
A something into something,
For I would that like to the things,
And what you would for something else?"
"Yes sir," said I, "but how things come
To be so fast, for something else?
So you can't know something else,
And something else with you, please say,
What should be, and all something else?
But how that like, and what else mean?"

What is the overall degree value of this passage? _____

What type of speech is this? _____

How does the poet feel about each of the lines. How can he grasp the something? What are three reasons?

Mark the correct words and correct words in the following lines and write the poem into lines.

"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea may
A something into something,
For I would that like to the things,
And what you would for something else?"

How does the poet feel about each of the lines? _____

What is the value of the type of water? _____

Conclusion

How does the speaker attempt to show his something? _____

Why is this something? _____

What does the poet's response to his attempt? _____

How does the poet feel about the something? _____
