

Lesson 10: The Endowed Speech

Describe the degree values of this passage by writing the appropriate letter below each line of the poem.

How like I would for water quench my thirst,
But salted down and wadded I am;
Against my will with a commitment,
And now the tide, my own responsibility
"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea water
is something very important,
For I would that like to the things,
and what you mean for important things?"
"Yes sir," said he, "but how things come to be so hard, for you should know that my wife and I have searched the world, and everywhere we go, we find the same things, that is, that all of the world is the same, that is, and that all the world"

What is the overall degree value of this poem? _____

What type of poem is this? _____

How does the poet feel about each of the lines. How can he argue for the degree? What are three reasons?

Mark the correct words and correct capitalization in the following lines and write the poem into lines.

"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea water
is something very important,
For I would that like to the things,
and what you mean for important things?"

How does the poet feel about each line? _____

What is the value of the degree of water? _____

Comments:

How does the speaker attempt to show his/her attitude? _____

Why is this poem important? _____

What does the poet's response to his attempt? _____

How does the poet feel about the world? _____

_____