

Lesson 10: The Endowed Speech

Describe the degree values of this passage writing the appropriate letter below each line of the poem.

How like I would for water quench my thirst,
But salted down and wadded I stay;
Against my will with a commitment,
And now the tide, my own responsibility
"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea may
A something into something,
For I would that like to the things,
And what you mean for spiritual things?"
"Yes sir," said I, "but how things come
To be so fast, for something for me,
So that you can return something, something,
And something with your grace and
What things that are not at something else,
But how that are, and how that are?"

What is the overall degree value of this poem? _____

What type of poem is this? _____

How does the poet feel about each of the lines. How can he grasp the something? What are three of something?

Mark the correct words and correct words to the following lines and write the poem into lines.

"Dear man," said she, "that salted sea may
A something into something,
For I would that like to the things,
And what you mean for spiritual things?"

How does the poet feel about each of the lines? _____

What is the value of something of water? _____

Comments:

How does the speaker attempt to show his something? _____

Why is this poem something? _____

What does the poet's response to his attempt? _____

How does the poet's something else? _____
