

Section 1

Question 1 – Summary

Use the English keyboard (QWERTY and Document/Insert) to write an answer.

1. Revised Answer

2. Summary

Write a summary of the events of the Introduction, including the title of Passage 1.

Use the information in Passage 1 to write a summary of the events of Passage 2. Use your own words for the summary.

Summarize with about 150 words, allowing for the text of your introduction.

Circle 100

1. Before you get started, read the tip for summary writing. They will give you a better idea of how to get started.

2. You can start by reading the introduction.

3. There are different ways to write a summary.

4. You can start with a topic sentence and then write the rest of the summary.

5. You can start with a topic sentence and then write the rest of the summary in separate paragraphs.

6. You can start with a topic sentence and then write the rest of the summary in separate paragraphs.

7. You can start with a topic sentence and then write the rest of the summary in separate paragraphs.

8. You can start with a topic sentence and then write the rest of the summary in separate paragraphs.

9. You can start with a topic sentence and then write the rest of the summary in separate paragraphs.

10. You can start with a topic sentence and then write the rest of the summary in separate paragraphs.