

Changing Past Tense Affirmative to Negative

Directions: Change the past tense affirmative sentences to negative.

The Changing Economy

1. Five years ago, I began working in the aviation industry.

2. The United States created two million jobs in the last few years.

3. Other nations invested their money in the United States.

4. Companies wrote software in India and sent it to the US.

5. Administrative support jobs moved overseas.

6. Other nations continued to have lower wages.

7. Many other countries built their innovative capacity.

8. Low paying corporations created many more jobs than high paying jobs.

9. Many companies spent more money and time in litigation procedures.

