And I'm a portable home;
I'm used by the circus,
So the animals won't roam.

What am I?

I am fuel for your car,
And with me you can drive;
Buy me at the station,
To keep the car alive.

What am I?

If a tree needs chopping,
I'm the tool that you need;
Beware of my sharp edge,
This warning you should heed.

What am I?
