

Name _____

Date _____

Commas in Sentences

Insert commas where they belong in each sentence!

Use commas:

- to separate adjectives. The tall, slim athlete dunked the ball.
- to separate items in a series. You need new parts, new shoes, and new socks.
- after an introductory statement. With a bit of effort, you can make your bed.
- before and, but, so, yet, or. I am so tired, but it is only seven thirty.

1. Alex ate all his vegetables so he can have dessert.
2. Dad bought a coat a scarf mitts and a hat.
3. After swimming we will go home.
4. My kitten is cute enthusiastic and adorable.
5. Mom wanted to go with us to the movies but she is too tired.
6. Will you turn the page circle number three and read the question?
7. The recipe asks for flour eggs sugar and oil.
8. Later this morning we will go outside for gym.
9. Hockey started last week yet we don't have our uniforms.
10. This student is attentive polite and determined.