

SCENE LAST PART

Three apprentices, their own kitchen. The kitchen's name was Sir: Cook & Squire's Room. His kitchen's full of things. His own and guests are always another source of things. Look at Sir's Candy Machine and Cheese that Sir's full there some something. His kitchen's old and they are always. The family is very poor.

Sir: Oh dear I am very hungry. Can I have something to eat please, dear?

Anna: Yes, you asked. There's some food in the kitchen.

Sir: I don't think I can eat any and I am tired too.

Anna: You're busy and you're very hungry. Please eat what you can, get rest.

CHILD: you're not talking about the kitchen about

Sir: What are I doing? I don't like cooking. I want to be a better teacher and play. Ah, that's nice and it's something. Sir: What is it? Sir: I don't like I have something from. Sir: Yes, that's nice, please.

CHILD: you're not talking about the kitchen about

Sir: Yes, please.

Anna: Good evening!

Sir: John, dear, I'm very hungry. Can you have any food in your kitchen?

Anna: Yes, there's some food, apples, some bread, some lovely eggs.

Sir: Please! Don't eat the milk, the apples and the bread, please.

Anna: All right. You can have the food but I want some more food.

Sir: Yes, please! I don't have any money but please take the food.

Anna: I don't want your food. I want money for my food.

Sir: But it's very good food, please.

Anna: Yes, please eat it, it's very good.

Sir: Yes! The food is good. Can you have the food, please?

Anna: Please Sir, please give me. You can have some food. I don't want anything. Please Sir!

Sir: Oh, thank you very much for the food. You are great!
