

Name _____

Date _____

Commas in Sentences

Use commas:

- to separate adjectives. The naughty, envious Grinch walk down the mountain.
- to separate items in a series. You need a pencil, an eraser, and a piece of paper.
- after an introductory statement. In Science, we learned about plants.
- before and, but, so, yet, or Do you want cake, or would you prefer pie?

Insert commas where they belong in each sentence!

1. I put away my socks my shirts and my pants.
2. Before the movie we bought popcorn.
3. The man looked at me so I smiled at him.
4. The game is interesting innovative and fun to play.
5. After school we will ride our bikes to the park.
6. Paul got off the table but he didn't push his chair in when he left.
7. I want to take a long warm bath before I go to bed.
8. Mary wrote a good story and it had a surprised ending.
9. Later this month we will go skating.
10. Pick up your toys your clothes and your shoes.