

"MILKMAN - UNUSUAL"

Joseph Milburn Perry (~~Johnson~~) was born on February 22, 1928 in Madison, an artist in the cartooning. He came into the world of the music industry about overnight. A friend introduced her to a music producer named Tom Bodett, from New York City, who was vacationing with his wife Jackie during December 1961.

She signed a contract for six albums, and Milburn went to work recording and co-writing the songs for her first album entitled music of the New York City single from the album, "How Do You Feel" was released in June 1962.

- 1. What is her full name?
- 1. Where did she learn her craft?
- 1. Who was her music producer? Where is he from?
- 1. What is the name of her first album?
- 1. What is the name of her first single?
- 1. Complete the lyrics using the following words:

also	ending	always	because because	all	about	we
them	and	because	they

You love my _____
and we'll never be together again.
But we're together
But you'll still be my _____ Baby come on the day
You can't see what I see and that's what you need me there
With you I'll _____ there Because

groceries