

Read the text and answer the following questions.

1. Who was the author?
2. What was the topic?
3. What was the structure?
4. What was the main message and support text?
5. What was the main message and support text?

1. The author was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club in the city of New York.
2. The main message was to encourage women to join the Women's Club.
3. The structure was a simple one: first, the author introduced the club and its purpose; then, she listed the benefits of joining; finally, she asked for more members.
4. The main message was to encourage women to join the Women's Club. The support text was the list of benefits of joining, which included the opportunity to meet other women, to attend lectures and courses, and to have a chance to help other women in need.
5. The main message was to encourage women to join the Women's Club. The support text was the list of benefits of joining, which included the opportunity to meet other women, to attend lectures and courses, and to have a chance to help other women in need.

Anna Maria P. Jones

1. She was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club.
2. She was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club.
3. She was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club.
4. She was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club.
5. She was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club.
6. She was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club.
7. She was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club.
8. She was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club.
9. She was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club.
10. She was a young woman who was a member of the Women's Club.