

When comparing two items, you may use a comparative form of the adjective. Sometimes you add the suffix -er to the adjective, sometimes, you use the word "more" prior to the word.

Directions: Read each adjective below. Determine whether to add the suffix -er, or use the word "more" prior to the adjective.

1. common		6. intelligent
2. small		7. rare
3. light		8. comfortable
4. heavy		9. big
5. slow		10. serious

Some adjectives have irregular comparative forms.

Directions: Write the comparative forms of these adjectives.

11. good _____      12. bad _____

13. far _____      14. many _____

Directions: Write a sentence using a comparative adjective.

15. _____