

WHAT IS A SENTENCE?

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. It must have a subject and a predicate. The subject is the person or thing that is doing the action, and the predicate is the action itself. A sentence can be a statement, a question, an exclamation, or a command.

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. It must have a subject and a predicate. The subject is the person or thing that is doing the action, and the predicate is the action itself. A sentence can be a statement, a question, an exclamation, or a command.

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. It must have a subject and a predicate. The subject is the person or thing that is doing the action, and the predicate is the action itself. A sentence can be a statement, a question, an exclamation, or a command.