

WORKSHEET

EXERCISE 1: COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH THE VERBS IN BRACKETS. USE THE CORRECT FORM.

1. Sarah _____ speak Italian 1 year ago, but now she _____ speak very fluently.
2. _____ you ride? Yes, but I am not a very good swimmer.
3. Before Charlie came to Britain, she _____ understand much English. Now she _____ understand everything.
4. I had a party last week, but Paul and Rachel _____ come.
5. My friend _____ over the bridge, because she had an accident.
6. Jane _____ go to the theatre at the weekend because she has to stop at home and look after her baby.
7. I _____ go out alone until when I was a child, but now I _____ go out whenever I want.
8. What _____ you do when you were a child? I _____ climb a tree and jump from one to another but now I _____ do all of those things.
9. She was a very shy child therefore she _____ talk to anybody too much except her family.
10. _____ you speak more slowly please? Because I _____ understand you.

EXERCISE 2: COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH THE VERBS IN BRACKETS. USE THE CORRECT FORM.

1. She _____ live in the country 2 years ago. (live)
2. There _____ be mobile phones in the 1970s. (be)
3. He _____ write to her after we'd told him. (write)
4. I _____ talk on the phone often. (talk)
5. My grandmother _____ talk to her very well. (talk)
6. _____ he _____ over a lot of children? (be)
7. I _____ do my sports but now I play tennis. (do)
8. _____ you _____ study a lot last year? (study)
9. That baby _____ make up what he saw after she drops it because it doesn't sleep. (make)
10. They _____ go to school by bus. (go)
11. My uncle _____ learning Italian at home. (learn)
12. He _____ play football because he didn't like sports. (play)
13. It's strange that she works with cats now, because she _____ like animals. (like)
14. People _____ listen to the news on the radio in 1950s. (listen)
15. _____ your father _____ be a doctor or a lawyer? (be)
16. _____ you _____ work 12 hours a day when you were a teacher? (work)