

PROLOGUE QUESTIONS

PROLOGUE: Watch without speaking.
Do this task before viewing the film.

Use your dictionary and find the meaning of these words. Copy the pronunciation too: stomping, lead, retreating, savagery, natives, Mughal, dual, gild, sturdy, steadily, three-legged, across, split, path, ignorant, variations, irradiate, stranger, Peter Panter, diamonds, shamed, dog, compass, unshowered, bark, gravel, weapon, shames, wisdom, anger, release.

After viewing the film, answer the following questions. You must answer FULL SENTENCE:

1. Whose life is revealed at the beginning of the story? Why did he feel proud?
2. Pouchonka is given a necklace by her father, Orel Pouchon. To whom did it originally belong?
3. Pouchonka has a strange dream, what is it about? Which piece of advice does Grandmother Wilton give her? What are the strange events?
4. What does Pouchonka's father want her to marry? Which adjective does he use to describe her? What are the reasons why her father thinks he is going to be a good husband?
5. Is Pouchonka shocked by the idea of marrying her father?
6. What adjective does Pouchonka and Grandmother Wilton use to describe Pouchon?
7. Where do John and Pouchonka first meet? What does John Smith go on to do?
8. What festival does John Smith have on his grounds in Masha's forest? Which object does Masha steal from John Smith's garden?

