

Name _____ Date _____

The Adverb and What It Describes

Directions: Circle the adverbs in each sentence and underline the words they modify.

1. The CEO feels unusually tense today.
2. Ginger spoke glowingly of Kyoko's extraordinary acting skills.
3. The children's teacher announced that their class was the most highly rated in the district.
4. Greg's mule accepted every task willingly.
5. You should put that hibiscus inside.
6. In the winter, New York is much colder than Florida.
7. Hank waved enthusiastically at Steve.
8. Speak softly into the microphone or we will suffer greatly.
9. When Thomas pounded firmly on the door, he woke the sleeping baby.
10. "Grammar is so difficult and quite boring," the overworked student complained bitterly.