Fill It In...

Write the ending of a story.

The beginning of the story has been written. Write the ending of the story.

One day I went to the zoo with my family. I was very excited because it was my first trip to the zoo. My brother wanted to see the zebras. My dad wanted to see the giraffes and the elephants. When we got to the elephant area there were a lot of people standing around. That is when we saw it: a walrus.
