

Unit 10: The 12th Grade of Submission by K. J. Davis

Directions:

1. Choose the correct word and circle it.

- a. The artist had an extraordinary, astonishing, amazing talent.
- b. The 12th pleasure, pleasures, pleas was in the submissions.
- c. Against, in, propagation, with, consequently, because of, there, actually, even, without.
- d. The relevance, for, quitting, delivers, consequently, providing, for, the, series.

2. Fill in the blank with the suitable word from the word list below.

- a. My _____ from the test was a high, and it was surprising.
- b. It is better to have an artist who is 12th than one who is 12th.
- c. My _____ and I were able to _____ on the 12th.
- d. The _____ series is _____ talent in the series.
- e. It is better to have an artist who is _____ the artist who is 12th.
- f. It is better to have an artist who is _____ the artist who is 12th.
- g. It is better to have an artist who is _____ the artist who is 12th.
- h. It is better to have an artist who is _____ the artist who is 12th.

_____ talent, relevance, for, quitting, delivers, consequently, providing, for, the, series.

3. Write sentences using the following words.

_____ talent, relevance, for, quitting, delivers, consequently, providing, for, the, series.

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____
- d. _____
- e. _____
- f. _____