

INDUCTIVE BIBLE STUDY

Lesson Plan

Small Group Military Model

INTRODUCTION (5 minutes, including objective)

- There are many types of Bible study: topical, character, book, etc.
- There are different methods of conducting a Bible study, from formal lecture to private study.
- The choice of type and method depends on the group and objectives.
- The objectives of most Military Christian Fellowships include carrying out the Great Commission within the Armed Forces and helping members reach spiritual maturity.
- The experience of many nations is that the INDUCTIVE BIBLE STUDY is one of the most effective, although not the only way, to do this. It can be led by anyone with leadership abilities and does not require theological training.

OBJECTIVE: By the end of this presentation, each of you should be able to do the following:

- A. Define an Inductive Bible Study in your own words.
- B. State the Four Basic Guidelines.
- C. Lead an Inductive Bible Study.
- D. Evaluate an Inductive Bible Study.

PRESENTATION (10 minutes)

- A. Definition. An Inductive Bible Study is:
  1. Study of a limited portion of Scripture, usually one chapter, sometimes less, seldom more.
  2. Study by a small group, 6-8 people optimum, generally of approximately the same grade.
  3. Study in an informal, discover style. Basically a Holy Spirit guided self-study.
- B. Basic Guidelines. These are not rigid rules.
  1. Stick to the passage. The study is limited to the selected portion. Supporting Scripture and testimonies are normally not used so that no one will become discouraged by difficulty in participating.
  2. Everyone participates who wants to, but no one is forced to participate.
  3. No one monopolizes.
  4. Answer three questions about the selected portion:
    - a. What does it say? CONTENT. Answer questions like Who? What? When? Where? How?
    - b. What does it mean? DISCOVERY. Is there a lesson, a promise, a command, a warning, or an example – good or bad? What can you learn about God?
    - c. What does it mean to me? APPLICATION. What should I do with what I have discovered?
- C. Duties of the Leader.
  1. Prepare for the Bible study. This is primarily administrative. Determine where, when, who, what, any refreshments, do I have enough Bibles for everyone, etc. Prayerfully study the lesson beforehand .
  2. Start and stop on time. Punctuality is important in the military.
  3. Enforce the Four Basic Guidelines. Review them at this time.

NOTE: The leader is only a facilitator. The Holy Spirit illumines and gives understanding.
