

The Contender* Character Chart

CP English 10

You will need to complete this chart on your own throughout your reading of The Contender. As you encounter these characters, fill in the chart. The first column lists the character's name. The second column asks you to describe the character. The third column asks you to name one or two people you know who the character reminds you of. The fourth column asks you for any changes that you see in the character throughout the book.

This will be handed in at the conclusion of the novel, Monday, December 7. You may complete it either as a hard copy or through Google Docs.
