How I wish for the old days when I was a little girl and I was so much loved! The house was with through me. The house was so big and so big. I was very happy then.

One day I was really sad because I was alone in a paper mill. My old school was closed and I was in this world of paper. In paper there, I was surrounded by a printing press. There a story was printed on me and many lovely pictures were printed too to illustrate the story.

My computer and I were sent to a large book shop. It was very bright and the books were all. The child was delighted to see me. He spent many hours before his computer. He turned over my page very carefully. He finished me with his own eyes.
