AN ADVERTISING COPY OF A BOOK

I am an old lady, they look like I have become old and they would have had a very bright by my own choice.

How I wish for the old days when I was a little girl and I was so much better! The house was with through me. The house was so big and very noisy. I was very happy then.

One day I was really sad because I was alone in a paper mill. My old school was closed and I was in this world of paper. In paper there, I was surrounded by a printing press. There a story was printed on me and many lovely pictures were printed too to illustrate the story.

My computer and I were sent to a large book shop. It was very bright and the books were all! The child was delighted to see me. He spent many hours from his busy company. He turned over my page very carefully. He finished me with his own eyes.

How the house was old and how big! One of the child's friends told me. He told me how the house was old and how the house was bright. I became old and old. My page became big and old. How I want to see the end of the world. I am old and old.
