

Name _____
Date _____

Class _____
Grade _____

1. They were both shocked and afraid when they read the report. What was the matter about the report this morning?

- a. They were both speaking.
- b. They were nervous.
- c. They were mad.

2. There was a lot of shouting. They were both afraid. What had happened on the beach. How big the children on the beach were and how old they were. What was the matter about the report?

- a. They had both been speaking.
- b. They had been nervous.
- c. They had been mad.

3. An accident had happened on the beach. The children were both afraid. What had happened on the beach. How big the children on the beach were and how old they were. What was the matter about the report?

- a. They had both been speaking.
- b. They had been nervous.
- c. They had been mad.

4. There was a lot of shouting. They were both afraid. What had happened on the beach. How big the children on the beach were and how old they were. What was the matter about the report?

- a. They had both been speaking.
- b. They had been nervous.
- c. They had been mad.

5. "The children were both speaking." There was a lot of shouting on the beach. How big the children on the beach were and how old they were. What was the matter about the report?

- "Yes, they were both speaking." There was a lot of shouting on the beach.
- "Yes, they were both speaking." There was a lot of shouting on the beach.
- "Yes, they were both speaking." There was a lot of shouting on the beach.