

When they got to the mountain and started up, Isaac said, "Father you have the wood for the offering, but where is the animal for the sacrifice?" Abraham said, "God will give us a lamb for the offering."

When they were at the top, Abraham took stones and made an altar. He put the wood on the altar. He took his son and tied his hands together and his feet and put him on the wood."

Abraham took the knife to kill Isaac like he would kill a lamb. He lifted his hand up to bring down the knife.

God called to Abraham, "Do not hurt Isaac! Do not make him die. Now I know that you honor and obey God. You were willing to give up your only son---your loved son."

Then Abraham looked up. He saw a sheep that was caught in a bush. Abraham got the sheep and killed the sheep for the sacrifice/offering.

Abraham called that place. "God will provide (give what is needed)."

Abraham and Isaac went down the mountain together.

God said to Abraham, "Because you were willing to give Me your son, I will bless him. I will bless all the people in the world through your family."
