

INTERNET SAFETY

Across

- 1 The user of the Internet or other information system is responsible (3,7).
- 2 The process of playing with information without paying for access to it (2,4).
- 3 The deliberate introduction of a computer program that disrupts communication, making messages more difficult (10).
- 4 A type of computer software that is installed on a web site to protect it against being copied without the owner's consent (7).
- 5 The United States' Department of Justice's (DOJ) 4 to 6 million computer emergency response coordinate center helps investigate and respond to computer emergencies (15).
- 6 The code generally assigned to each country and used to designate it (3,4).