

Goals Worksheet: Long- and short-term goals

---

The following are initial questions to help guide the planning committee in setting long- and short-term goals for the Chinese language program.

Long-term goals

What language proficiencies will students attain in Chinese by the time they have completed the program?

.....

How long (how many instructional hours) will it take to acquire those proficiencies?

.....

In what grade should the program begin and how will the program extend from one grade to another in order to produce the desired proficiency level?

.....

Will these courses enable students to earn credits and enable them to continue their study of Chinese in higher education?

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Short-term goals

What specific language performance indicators will be the focus for each year of the program?

.....

What instructional approaches seem to hold the highest promise for achieving the targeted proficiencies?

.....

What materials and technological tools will be used for teaching and learning?

.....

What in-house and external measures of assessment will be used to determine student and program growth toward targeted proficiencies?

.....

How will teachers of other subjects support the program by incorporating content on China into their classes?

.....

How will members of the local Chinese-speaking community be tapped to enrich teaching and learning?
