

4. Millwright Night's dream – Discussion	GROUP 1
7) What does the title of the poem suggest to you about the subject matter of the poem? 8) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 9) Can you explain the title of the poem? 10) Answer any questions.

4. Millwright Night's dream – Discussion	GROUP 2
7) Can you explain the title of the poem? 8) In the beginning of the poem there is an argument among some people. What does the poet say about the people in the poem? Is it better or worse than the poem that you have just read? Why or why not? 9) Are there any other things in the poem that you think are important? 10) Answer any questions.

4. Millwright Night's dream – Discussion	GROUP 3
7) How do you think the poet uses the title of the poem? What does it tell you about the poem? 8) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 9) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 10) Answer any questions.

4. Millwright Night's dream – Discussion	GROUP 4
7) What does the title of the poem suggest to you about the subject matter of the poem? 8) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 9) Why do you think the poet uses the title of the poem? What does it tell you about the poem? 10) Answer any questions.

4. Millwright Night's dream – Discussion	GROUP 5
7) How does the poet use the title of the poem to set the scene for the poem? 8) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 9) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 10) Answer any questions.	